To receive Holy Communion do so in silence- do not say Amen.

If our Holy Mother the Church spends the time of Advent in solemn preparation for the threefold coming of Jesus Christ; if after the example of the prudent virgins, she keeps her lamp lit, ready for the coming of the Bridegroom; we (being her members and her children,) ought to enter into her spirit, and apply to ourselves this warning of our Savior: "Let your loins be girt, and lamps burning in your hands, and ye yourselves be like unto men who wait for their Lord!" The Church and we have in reality the same hopes. Each one of us is, on the part of God, an object of mercy and care, as is the Church herself. If she is the temple of God, it is because she is built of living stones; if she is the bride, it is because she consists of all the souls which are invited to eternal union with God. If it is written that the Savior hath purchased the Church with His own Blood, may not each one of us say of himself those words of St. Paul, "Christ hath loved me and hath delivered Himself up for me"? Our destiny being the same, then, as that of the Church, we should endeavor during Advent, to enter into the Spirit of preparation, which is, as we have been taught, that of the Church herself.

Firstly, it is our duty to join with the saints of the Old Law in asking for the Messias, and thus pay the debt which the whole human race owes to the divine mercy. In order to fulfill this duty with fervor, let us go back in thought to those four thousand years, represented by the four weeks of Advent, and reflect on the darkness and crime which filled the world before Our Savior's coming. Let our hearts be filled with lively gratitude towards Him Who saved His creature man from death, and Who came down from heaven that He might know our miseries by Himself experiencing them, yes, all of them excepting sin. Let us cry to Him with confidence from the depths of our misery, for He still wishes us to beseech Him to save us. Let therefore our desires and our confidence have their free utterance in the ardent supplications of the ancient prophets, which the Church puts on our lips during these days of expectation; let us give our closest attention to the sentiments which they express.
