Second Sunday in Lent Prayer to Christ in the Mystery of the Transfiguration. Prayer to the Father. Christ Jesus, Eternal Word, Divine Master, You are the splendor of the Father and the brightness of His substance; You Yourself have said: "If anyone loves Me, I will manifest Myself to him," grant that we may love You fervently so that we may receive from You an intenser light upon Your Divinity; for, as You again told us, the secret of our life, of everlasting life, is to know that our Heavenly Father is the one true God, and that You are His Christ, sent here below to be our King and the High Priest of our salvation. Enlighten the eyes of our souls with a ray of those divine splendors that shone on Tabor, so that our faith in Your divinity, our hope in Your merits, and our love for Your adorable Person may be thereby strengthened and increased.

Yea, Father, I believe these words, I will repeat them after Thee: this Jesus Who is within me through faith, through Communion, is Thy Son: and because Thou hast said it, I believe it; and because I believe it, I adore Thy Son, so as to render Him my homage; and by Him, in Him, so likewise to render to Thee, O Heavenly Father, in union with Thy Spirit, all honor and glory. ~ Dom Columba Marmion

Ahhh, the ides of March, the time is changing, spring is in the air!!! What a fine time for PPA's Second Annual St. Joseph Family Night & Father-Son Campout just for Academy families! The fun gets underway about 5:30pm on Friday, March 17, when families will assemble to pitch their tents on the front lawn. Soon thereafter, evening dinners will begin to appear; maybe trays of fish and chips, cheese pizza or hot cakes on the grill... mmmm!!! About 7:30, everyone will go to the Chapel for the Rosary and Litany to St. Joseph. Then, the Moms and sisters will depart, leaving the Dads and sons on their own to play laser tag, or a bunch of other fun games until it's time for s'mores at the campfire! Eventually, everyone will hit the sack, whether in a tent or in the Hall, until breakfast time dawns with a wide selection of breakfast burritos and donuts. Then the hard part, pack up the gear and head home! Sounds like a ton of fun to me; how about you? Do your sons (and daughters!) attend Padre Pio? They could, you know. This sort of family environment may just be what they need. Please contact the office for more information.

And just as we thought there was nothing more to be offered in the way of Lenten preparation, this reflection pops up: "There are three traps of Satan that steal joy and peace: Regretting about the past; Fear for the future; Ingratitude for the present." St. Anthony the Great, Hermit. 251 – 356AD
