Padre Pio Academy wishes everyone a happy and holy Eastertide

If you had the good fortune to attend the 7:30 Mass this morning, here's a reminder for young families and their children: Immediately following this first Mass there will be an Easter Egg Hunt on the front lawn! The little folks will gather together and as the ribbon drops they will take off, seeking colorful plastic eggs laden with Easter goodies – as many as their little arms can carry!!! It should be great fun watching them scamper around, returning with eggs and ear-to-ear smiles!!!

Jog-A-Thon 2023 continues... This year's theme is, The Color of Run; similar to the color of the speed of light, only faster!!! This week the honors again go to Sebastian Lewis who brought in $600! Sebastian is in the lead so far with $1770 in donations! Total donations school-wide are almost $17,000! Now, if our smiling students are able to corral a corporate sponsor for $500, they will receive one free "homework pass" and, they will get a free In-N-Out lunch! To date, the In-N-Outers will be: Aimee Lewis, Sebastian Lewis, Oceana Pador, Hazel Codipilly, and Adeline Von Ranzow!!! Time for the Jog-A-Thon Quiz! What do the Codeceiras, Sophia Crostic, the Brian Lewis family, Olivia Perez, Luna Garcia, the Pador Family, Adeline Von Ranzow, Paul Condon, the Rasada Family, Serena Thackerson, Sammy Rodriguez, and the Mikey Lewis family, all have in common? If you guessed they all brought in $400, You Are Right! Plus, they get a "free dress" pass and pizza slices when the truck rolls in!

Will fund-raising grind to a halt over Easter vacation? Not a chance! If you walked in from the parking lot, you probably saw the missing awning at the lunch area. The high winds last week blew under the awning, ripping and twisting the aluminum supports from the wall. Jog-A-Thon monies will go to the repair of the wind-damaged sun shade and the school walls.

On the day of His Resurrection, Christ Jesus left in the tomb the linen cloths, which are the symbol of our infirmities, of our weaknesses, of our imperfections; He comes forth triumphant from the sepulcher; His liberty is entire, He is animated with intense, perfect life with which all the fibers of His being vibrate. In Him, all that is mortal is absorbed by Life. Herein is represented in Christ the first element of holiness: separation from all that is dead, from all that is earthly, freedom from all weakness, all infirmity, all suffering. But there is a second element of holiness: the adhering, the belonging, the consecration to God. We shall only know in heaven with what plenitude Jesus lived for His Father during those blessed days. The life of the Risen Christ becomes an infinite source of glory for His Father; there is no longer any weakness in Him; all is light, strength, beauty, life; all in Him sings an uninterrupted canticle of praise. His Sacred Humanity yields itself more than ever to the glory of the Father. ~ Dom Marmion
