Modesty in Church Out of respect to our Lord, we beg all to appear in church modestly dressed. No shorts allowed. Ladies heads must be covered, no slacks or pants, low cut or sleeveless tops. Your cooperation is evidence of your love for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and respect for the House of God.

Communion Fast Holy Communion may be received only by Catholics believing themselves to be in the state of Sanctifying Grace, who are observing at least one hour fast prior to reception of the Sacrament. We are urged, however, to observe the fast from midnight, or, at least for three hours. While always welcome, non-Catholics and those who do not accept the traditional teachings of the Church in matters of faith and morals, are NOT to receive Communion at this Mass. To receive Holy Communion do so in silence- do not say Amen.

Confession Procedure Begin your confession with "BLESS me Father for I have sinned", when you have received your penance, immediately begin your Act of Contrition.

Mass Requests $20 stipend per Mass, intention box located on the wall in the gift shop.

Chapel Etiquette Food, drink and matches are not allowed. Please use the butane lighters to light the votive candles. When the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, genuflect on both knees and bow. Otherwise, genuflect with the RIGHT knee touching the floor.

OLHC is an independent Traditional Chapel. We maintain no association whatsoever with Kentucky Resistance.

No unapproved literature may be left on the premises. It will be discarded.

Need something blessed? The first Sunday of each month after each Mass. The next blessings will be February 4th. Please be there to pick up your item, it will not be held.

Lost and Found Please remember to identify your Missals and prayer books for a safe return. If you have lost something, check the lost and found bin in the bookstore and if you find something left in the pews, please return it to the bin to find its rightful owner.

Our PPA Academicians have returned to classes this past week, each anticipating the prayers, works, joys and sufferings ushered in by the new year. Soon comes First Communion, the annual Spring Dance in San Jose, Mother/Daughter Tea, May Crowning and Graduation! But in the midst thereof, work and trials also: the end of the second quarter with exams and report cards; Michael Soto Day, a day of reflection so the students might remember that they are dust and so will return. And again, Lent, Jog-A-Thon and the SAT's. Lots of work, and not for the faint-of-heart! Will they succeed? They must, again and again:

O my Crucifix, I must admit, in the presence of thine indefatigable Arms, that this day of self-worship is a lost day! Forgive me! Behold, another day has dawned: I have begun this day with folded arms, duties have been set aside, I plea exceptional circumstances to suspend the business of life, the book slips from my hand, my pen remains inactive. I get up, I go; I come back and still the same miserable result! I have forgotten that my toil, like that of my Model on Calvary, is painful because it is expiatory, and I must learn that such labor is love. Yet another day dawns. This day I must consult the crucifix. Christ alone can teach me to adopt a Catholic interpretation of charity. He speaks to me from the cross: 'I died for all. I desire the salvation of all. I came to heal all infirmities. I went about doing good to all and I wish my disciple to be like his Master.' Let us burst asunder the fetters which detain us; let us pray; let us work in love: as Catholics. Prayer will extend our arms as were those of our savior outstretched from one end of the world to the other, and will permit us to raise to heaven not only our own burden but also the burden of others. Let us love with generosity. A heart formed in the school of the crucifix is so very rich. To love God and men with our whole heart is the Great Law of the Gospel. Let us work, let us love. Let us give with outstretched arms and bountiful hands. Hanging on the gibbet of the cross, Jesus our brother, forgetting himself and the world, thought only of God. Let us all pray and say, My God, I give freely and without reserve; My God, I give wholly and without reserve; My God, simply and without fear, I commend my spirit into Thy hands. ~ Bishop Francis Kerril Amherst, Northampton, England
