Today is the First Sunday After Easter, a Sunday rich in appellation, for it is also Low Sunday, so called in English, by contrast with Easter or High Sunday; it is also named, Quasimodo Sunday, in deference to the opening words of the Introit. It is also referred to as the Octave Day of Easter. Finally, it is known liturgically as Dominica in Albis, that is, Sunday in White, being the Sunday of the laying aside of the of the white robes; for in early days, the neophytes, or converts, were baptized together on Holy Saturday, and then solemnly robed in white, the symbolical color of the innocence recovered by them through the grace of the sacrament.

Dressed in white, the neophytes assisted at their first Mass and received their first holy Communion. After the service they did not divest themselves of their baptismal apparel but wore it during the whole ensuing week. They were the guests of honor in the parish. Each morning they came to Mass in their white robes, and in the afternoon they returned as a group for a service at the baptismal font. Their presence was a living sermon reminding all that as Christians they had risen with Christ to a new life on Easter. On the Saturday after Easter, they came to the church of their baptism for the last time laying aside their white garments and placing them in the church's wardrobe where they remained as a memorial of the baptism and the vows they had made.

What remains of this venerable, ancient rite? At the baptism of an infant the priest places a white linen upon the child while saying: "Receive this white garment and see that you wear it without stain to the judgement seat of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you may enjoy life everlasting." ~ Pius Parsch

Here's the very latest from the Keepers of the Jog-a-Thon: our number one collector this week was Matthew Lewis with $2135!!! Matthew gets to choose a gift card for Kid's Meal or a toy! He was followed by Serena Thackerson - $1000, Adeline VonRanzow - $760, Luna Garcia - $745, Salvador Fonseca - $710, Adam Soto - $690, Mia Codipilly - $680, Paul Condon - $ 650, Sophia Crostic - $590, and Roman Soto - $565!!! Miss Maggie's Kindergarten/1st Grade class is still in the lead with $7455 total! And the Grand total with only Eleven days remaining is, $15411!!! That leaves only $9589 to go to achieve the $25,000 goal! Will they do it? Can they do it? We shall see!!!

PLEASE NOTE: This Chapel will be closed again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday (April 8, 9 and 10) in order to complete the paint work. Thank you for your patience!

WE KNOW WHO YOU ARE!!! During Holy Week one of your unsupervised children flushed handful after handful of paper seat-covers into the restroom toilet causing a water backup and necessitating an emergency plumber call. That wasn't very nice of you. We work hard to gather donations for upkeep and necessary repairs (see top paragraph) but emergency repairs cost a lot of money!!! Please watch your children more carefully in the future.

Modesty in Church Out of respect to our Lord, we beg all to appear in church modestly dressed. No shorts allowed. Ladies heads must be covered, no slacks or pants, low cut or sleeveless tops. Your cooperation is evidence of your love for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and respect for the House of God.

Communion Fast Holy Communion may be received only by Catholics believing themselves to be in the state of Sanctifying Grace, who are observing at least one hour fast prior to reception of the Sacrament. We are urged, however, to observe the fast from midnight, or, at least for three hours. While always welcome, non-Catholics and those who do not accept the traditional teachings of the Church in matters of faith and morals, are NOT to receive Communion at this Mass. To receive Holy Communion do so in silence- do not say Amen.

Confession Procedure Begin your confession with "BLESS me Father for I have sinned", when you have received your penance, immediately begin your Act of Contrition.

Mass Requests $20 stipend per Mass, intention box located on the wall in the gift shop.

Chapel Etiquette Food, drink and matches are not allowed. Please use the butane lighters to light the votive candles. When the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, genuflect on both knees and bow. Otherwise, genuflect with the RIGHT knee touching the floor.
