Modesty in Church Out of respect to our Lord, we beg all to appear in church modestly dressed. No shorts allowed. Ladies heads must be covered, no slacks or pants, low cut or sleeveless tops. Your cooperation is evidence of your love for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and respect for the House of God.

Communion Fast Holy Communion may be received only by Catholics believing themselves to be in the state of Sanctifying Grace, who are observing at least one hour fast prior to reception of the Sacrament. We are urged, however, to observe the fast from midnight, or, at least for three hours. While always welcome, non-Catholics and those who do not accept the traditional teachings of the Church in matters of faith and morals, are NOT to receive Communion at this Mass. To receive Holy Communion do so in silence- do not say Amen.

Confession Procedure Begin your confession with "BLESS me Father for I have sinned", when you have received your penance, immediately begin your Act of Contrition.

“For there shall be great tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now; neither shall be.” This prophecy relates to the oppression Jerusalem would undergo during the siege, as also to the yet greater calamities which will befall mankind at the end of the world. Great tribulation also awaits those lukewarm and slothful Christians who postpone the affairs of their salvation to a time when they are no longer capable of attending to them. In the last deadly struggle the body will undergo great suffering, but far greater will be the torments of the soul through the gnawings of conscience. By the feeble glimmer of the death-taper you will see far more clearly than now, in the full glare of the noonday sun, for you will no longer be blinded by the world, and your passions will be at rest. You will then perceive how evil it is to lead a careless life, to love the world, to neglect your duties, to disregard the salvation of your soul; you will THEN see yourself fettered by a multitude of sins, which you had hitherto overlooked; you will THEN discern the poorness and imperfection of those good works on which you so greatly prided yourself. Alas, how great will be your tribulation in that day! If you would escape this tribulation, you must do NOW what you would wish to do THEN; take death for your counsellor, and follow his directions. “He is not worthy of the name of Christian who lives in a state in which he would not dare to die.” ~ Nicholas Avancinus S.J.

We want to acknowledge everyone who last Sunday found time in their day to join us in a prayerful salute to Monsignor Patrick Perez at his gravesite. Father Johnson kindly lead the congregation in the recitation of the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary, then sprinkled Holy Water on Monsignor’s and all the nearby graves. Stories were shared about Monsignor by Father and others both before and after the Rosary. It was a bittersweet afternoon for one and all.

During his last Advent on earth in 2020, Monsignor vigorously promoted efforts to provide basic baskets of food for poor families in Brazil attached to the St. Philomena Center there. Our St. Philomena Center (11) is repeating the effort again this year, seeking donations for Christmas baskets containing a whole roasted chicken with pounds of rice, sugar, salt, beans, etc. etc. A $30 gift will pay for a single basket. This is indeed a holy way to support your fellow Catholics, with every dollar going straight to the food baskets. If you would like to make a donation, detailed information is on a poster on the Chapel door, as well as mailing envelopes. Please help keep Catholic Faith, Hope and Charity alive by adopting a poor family, or several families, this Christmas, 2024.

Our friend, Mac, would like to thank the charitable person who saw to the return of his missal. Mac is very appreciative!
