"I have slept and have taken My rest, and I have risen up." Psalm iii. 6.

The Soul of Christ was reunited to His Body; for as the Body partook of the suffering, it was meet that it should share in the glory of the Resurrection. All wounds and bruises disappear instantaneously from the mangled, ill-used Body; it shines forth with a brighter glory than in the Transfiguration on Mount Tabor. How must the Soul of Christ have rejoiced at this glorification of His Body! When afflicted with bodily infirmities, sickness and pain, do not despond; bear your sufferings patiently and in a spirit of penance, and console yourself with the prospect of the Resurrection; for then your body will be freed from all infirmity and suffering, and clothed with glory. With what transports of hope and gratitude, of love and joy, must the souls in Limbo have welcomed Christ, when He descended, and manifested Himself to them in all the brightness of His Divine Majesty! With the same feelings should you approach your Savior, promising Him obedience, love, and fidelity; let nothing ever separate you from Him. ~ Nicholas Avancinus S.J.

In a spirit of heartfelt prayer, we wish the many benefactors of Padre Pio Academy all the blessings and joys of the Easter season!

It is today! It is immediately following the 7:30 Mass! It is under the trees and bushes! It is on the vast stretches of the lawn! It is the annual Easter Egg Hunt for the junior members of the parish!!! They will need a keen eye and certainly a basket (or reasonable substitute) to carry all the eggs they find. Please be watchful after Mass -there's bound to be a bevy of Easter Egg hunters darting to and fro!!!

What would a Padre Pio Academy Easter Vacation be without a fun-packed Family Night in conjunction with a Father/Son Campout? Just to say, it wouldn't be all the fun that it could have been! The PPA families are all invited to the 4th annual St. Joseph Family Night, this Friday, April 25th. The fun gets underway at 5:30 with family dinners, tent set-up on the front lawn and a group Rosary. Now, about 8:00 the Moms and girls will have to leave and the Dads and sons will soon begin to get into trouble THAT is to say, they will play laser tag and eat more and more S'mores till it's finally sleeping bag time!!! Then about 7:00 the next morning, the Dads will begin to rustle up vast quantities of breakfast for the hungry troops! Talk about family fun! Don't you wish your children went to PPA? It could/should happen. Call the office for an appointment.

In passing: Please pray for the soul of Bill Peck of Ventura, who succumbed to cancer of the throat at 92 years of age; this on March 25th. Bill was a longtime parishioner, dating back to the days of Father Fred Schell. May he rest in peace. Bill is survived by his wife, Helen.

Saturday, April 26, 9:30AM, Fr. Burfitt will host an introductory Teen Group, 13 - 17 years, at the OLA parish hall, to inspire pursuit of their faith thru prayer, education and good works. Be there!
