"...one of the soldiers with a spear opened His side, and immediately there came forth blood and water." ~Gospel of the Feast of the Sacred Heart

Let us imitate our Mother the Church, who hears these mysterious words with such profound attention. This gospel tells us of the beautiful path by which she first came: she was born from the Heart of the Man-God. She could not have had any other beginning than this, for she is the work, by excellence, of His love; and it is for this His Bride, that He has accomplished all His other works. Eve was taken from Adam's side, in figure of a future mystery; but, for the very reason of its being a type and a prediction, no trace was to be left of the fact itself. But in the mysterious fulfillment of the figure, that is, in Jesus' side being opened that His Bride the Church might come forth, the trace was to remain for ever. As often as she looks at this wound, she is reminded of her glorious origin; and that open side is like a ceaseless reminder that she has but to go to that Sacred Heart, and there she will find everything she needs for her children. ~ Dom Gueranger

There is one feast which by its object brings to our mind, in a general manner, the love that the Incarnate Word has shown towards us: it is the Feast of the Sacred Heart. It is with this feast that the Church, so to speak, closes the annual cycle of the solemnities of the Savior; it is as if, arrived at the term of the contemplation of her Bridegroom's mysteries, there is nothing left for her to do but to celebrate the very love that inspired them all. ~Dom Marmion

Tomorrow, our spiritual friend and benefactor, Father Lawrence Smith in Wisconsin, will offer the fourth of a Novena of Masses with the intention of deliverance of our loved ones, and/or ourselves, from the influence, assaults and tyranny of satan and his demons. To participate most fully in this endeavor, Father asks that you attend Mass or make a Spiritual Communion; include these intentions in your daily Rosary throughout the Novena of Masses, and pray the Novena to the Immaculate Conception in November. All parishioners of OLHC have been generally enrolled.

Tomorrow also is the Commemoration of St. Paul, Apostle to the Gentiles. You too may become such an apostle, albeit without scourging or shipwreck. St. Therese of Lisieux provides some insight: "A sigh can save a soul. Picking up a pin for love's sake can convert a soul. Do not lose even one of the thorns that you meet with every day; with one of them you can save a soul."

If you have need of a full-size double bed, about 6 x 5 feet, please contact Mary Lewis: (714) 609-7518 to arrange for pickup. The bed also has hospital-like reclining capabilities and best of all, it is free! This is the final time of asking! Parish Registration Cards are still available on the giftshop counter.
