Has everyone circled Saturday, October 11 on their calendar? As you were advised last week, that is the day of the Fall Festival, an annual parish event sponsored by, and for the benefit of, Padre Pio Academy! Things get underway at 3:30 that afternoon and will last three hours or so. By "things" we mean late lunches/early dinners. Although the menu has yet to be revealed, it typically involves hot sandwiches, a variety of culinary contributions by parishioners, snacks, desserts and a selection of beverages. Then there's a 50/50 Raffle in the works as well; and there are always tables manned by parishioners, who enjoy selling a variety of homemade goods. Bingo will keep everyone busy, along with the usual array of fun activities for the children. It goes without saying, but we'll say it anyway, the high point of the afternoon will undoubtedly be the pulling of the winning tickets for the $10,000 Raffle! There will be three winners. The grand prize is $7000, the runner up gets $2000, and third prize is $1000!!! The only way you can contend for these prizes is to buy a ticket or two or three. They are only $100 each, and the proceeds from this Raffle, and in fact from the entire Fall Festival, go to Padre Pio Academy with the objective of keeping our tuition low and affordable for the families. The tickets go on sale today in the breezeway after both Masses. But here's the catch, there are only 300 available, so you'll want to get yours as soon as you possibly can! See you in the breezeway!!!

"No one goes to Heaven by accident. No one goes to hell by mistake. Man as a creature with a rational soul must decide. Each thought, word and deed reflects a moral intention either to give glory to God or to participate in the rebellion of satan. We either grow in grace or we die in sin. St. Thomas Aquinas says that he who does not wish to be better is not even good. There is a myriad of actions taken by Catholics requiring an answer to the question, "Does this or does this not please God?"

Pleasing peers it seems, or pleasing fashion or pleasing ambition or pleasing appetites are the only measures for making decisions on what is done or left undone. Even the heathens do this. Catholics must rise to much higher standards. Broad and smooth is the road to perdition that many take. Straight and rough is the road to Heaven taken by the few. Again, St. Thomas says that the more difficult a task, the fewer there are who make sufficient effort to accomplish it. To accomplish the end, the means must also be embraced. The only means to Heaven is the Cross. The Cross comes from the Sacraments: coming from the Church: coming from God. The path to God is the road of the Way of the Cross. "Does this or does this not please God" rephrased is, "Does this embrace or does this flee the Cross?" He who embraces the Cross is carried by Jesus to Heaven; he who flees the Cross must necessarily fall into hell." ~ Father Lawrence Smith
