It is our duty and in our best interest to often visit the Blessed Sacrament ~ If there were in the world a place where Jesus showed Himself under a sensible form as He formerly did in the midst of Judea, where He conversed familiarly with anyone who went to visit Him, one should doubtless consider it a duty and a happiness to go converse with Him, if the distance traversed were not too great. What would it be for us then, if He were to come, establishing Himself near us, almost at our very door, saying the while: Come to me; it is a great pleasure to talk with you and to dispense My treasures to you. How eager we would be to meet Him, and how unworthy he who did not do so! O men of little faith that we are! Have we not then in the Eucharist the same Jesus Christ whom the Magi adored; whom Judea saw passing by healing and doing good to all?

Tabernacles are the thrones of grace where Jesus Christ dispenses His favors and bestows them on all who visit Him. Let us go to Him and tell Him our needs with simplicity and confidence, and we shall be solaced. One sole visit to the Blessed Sacrament often gives back calm and peace to the troubled soul; it had come to Him sorrowful and languishing, and it returns full of consolation and joy; it had come tepid, feeble and full of distractions, and it returns warmed, encouraged and recollected. It would be impossible to express how many graces the soul receives in these holy visits. It is there that Jesus Christ accomplishes in a very special manner His promise, "Ask and you shall receive". There we obtain the illumination which enlightens, the divine unction which touches, the grace which sanctifies, to such a degree that we may almost be sure of the salvation of a soul who is faithful in making his visits every day to the Blessed Sacrament. For it is there we obtain, besides graces for ourselves, graces for our neighbor, our parish, the Church, even the whole world, because the treasures of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament are inexhaustible.

How then is it, that having within our reach the source of so many blessings, we go so seldom to draw from it, and that when Jesus asks for nothing better than to give us His graces we show so little zeal in going to receive them? Let us here examine our conscience. Have we a fixed time for visiting the Blessed Sacrament? Are we faithful to it? Do we not sometimes look upon the moments as less well employed which we pass at the foot of the altar? Do we not prefer to them the visits of friends, or certain worldly visits as useless as they are dangerous? Lastly, is it to the tabernacle we have recourse in our temptations and our discouragements in order to seek consolation and strength? ~ Rev. M. Hamon, S.S. (Imp. 1804)
