Howdy, y'all! That's also the theme of the upcoming Padre Pio Academy Dinner/Dance, right here in Father Schell Hall on Saturday, January 17, 6:00 to 11:00PM. Everyone is invited and we always have a ton of fun dancing, meeting new folks, eating and chatting it up! That said, you'll need a ticket and it's a' gettin' late! You might find a $55 ticket, if not, they're $60 at the door. You can wear your cowboy hat and boots, but it's semi-formal so cowboys need a tie and jacket as well. Cowgirls are asked to dress modestly, but it's still ok to get all gussied up!! Detailed info is on the breezeway posters. Be seein' ya!

In case you missed: the arrival of the 2026 OLHC Donation Envelopes has been delayed until mid-January. In lieu of "the real thing" we are offering packages of 6 envelopes to tide you over. These envelopes have never been used and the identification number is invalid. If you need a package, help yourself, being sure to write your own number on the front as well as your name, so we can be sure to credit the donation to the appropriate person.

An Adopt-A-Family note of gratitude from Brazil:

Dear Adopt-A-Family Benefactors, Merry Christmas! In the rush of these days, there were many trips to the wholesale store for these Food Baskets. One day kept us out until midnight; exhausted but happy, extremely happy, to know we are doing this, out of love for God, the Virgin-Martyr, St. Philomena, and for the poor. I am absolutely certain that one day, when you meet the Child who was born today, you will hear from Him, "I was hungry and you gave me food."

A total of 158 food baskets and chickens were distributed for Christmas: in the city of Crato, we distributed 66 baskets with roasted chickens. In the city of Juazeiro do Norte, 66 such baskets. Here in Barbalha, where I live, 19 baskets. For the state of Goias, 7 baskets. We have many poor families. To know which ones to help, we make a missionary visit selecting the poorest and most needy. When I was asked to manage the Christmas Food Drive again, I confess I did not think I could, because I wasn't well, struggling with neurological symptoms. I stopped twice while trying to write, "No, I cannot," but I think St. Philomena prevented me from doing so. In a moment of impulse, I wrote, "Yes, I will." And St. Philomena gave us the grace to make it happen. Dozens of families reached! Dozens! Thanks to St. Philomena. Truly, there are miracles that only happen at Christmas! With affection and gratitude to all Benefactors: Thank you for all you gave for Brazil. Thank you for all your help in the "Adopt-A-Family" campaign at Christmas, Thank you for everything! Your reward will be great. Merry Christmas to all our friends in St. Philomena. ~ Francisco W. -Francisco is the Director of the Universal Archconfraternity of St. Philomena Center (63) in Brazil.
