The night between Saturday and Sunday has well-nigh run its course, and the day-dawn is appearing. The Mother of Sorrows is waiting in courageous hope and patience, for the blissful moment of her Jesus' return. Magdalen and the other holy women have spent the night in watching, and are preparing to start for the sepulchre. In limbo, the Soul of our crucified Lord is about to give the glad word of departure to the myriads of the long-imprisoned holy souls who cluster round Him in adoring love. Death is still holding his silent sway over the sepulchre where rests the Body of Jesus. Since the day when he gained his first victim, Abel, death has swept off countless generations; but never has he held in his grasp a prey so noble as this that now lies in the tomb near Calvary. Never has the terrible sentence of God pronounced against our first parents, received such a fulfilment as this, but never has death received such a defeat as the one that is now preparing. It is true, the power of God has at times brought back the dead to life: the son of the widow of Naim, and Lazarus, were reclaimed from the bondage of this tyrant death; but he regained his sway over them all. But his Victim of Calvary is to conquer him forever, for this is He of whom it is written in the prophecy: "O death! I will be thy death!" Just a few brief moments and the battle will be begun, and Life shall vanquish death." ~ ~ Abbot Gueranger: The Liturgical Year

Nobody does Easter Egg Hunt like Our Lady Help of Christians does Easter Egg Hunt!!! And it is today! And it follows immediately after the 7:30 Mass! The junior members of the congregation will want to head out to the spreading canopy tree to get started. They will need a basket (or reasonable facsimile) to hold all the eggs which they are likely to find as they dart left and right, north and south. Please be watchful as you leave Mass so as not to trip over these excited and busy little people!

Our hard-working Padre Pio Academicians find themselves on a bit of a well-earned Easter vacation this week; the perfect time for our 5th annual combination St. Joseph Family Night and Father/Son Campout! All Padre Pio Academy families are invited! Things get underway about 5:30 with family dinners, a tent set-up on the front lawn and a group Rosary. Now then, just about 8:00, the Moms and girls will have to leave so the Dads and sons can eat all the dessert they want! Then comes a protracted game of laser tag till it's time to warm up the S'mores around the campfire. Then some singin' and story tellin' till heads get heavy and everyone heads off to their warm sleeping bags. ZZZzzzzz.... But at 7:00 in the morning, the Dads will begin to rustle up a load of food for the hungry troops! Talk about family FUN! Don't you wish your young 'uns went to PPA? It could happen. It should happen! Call the office for an appointment.
