Padre Pio Academy News

Celebrating 42 Years of Catholic Tradition in Education

www.padrepio-academy.org email: ppioacademy@gmail.com

Some weeks ago, Mrs. Davis' 4th, 5th and 6th grade Academy classes made a morning journey to the not-so-far-away La Mirada Theater of the Performing Arts for a two hour morning performance of The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe. This was a live, on-stage performance of a play based on the C.S. Lewis classic work of literature, by the same name. The play faithfully recreates the magic and mystery of Aslan, the great lion, his struggle with the White Witch and the adventures of four children who inadvertently wander from an old wardrobe into the exciting, never-to-be-forgotten Narnia, a magical land that is being kept in the grips of a terrible winter due to an evil spell cast by the White Witch! The four heroes, Peter, Lucy, Edmund and Susan, take the audience on an adventure to save Narnia from this terrible curse, while meeting Narnia's unforgettable characters along the way, including Mr. Tumnus, various talking animals, and of course, Aslan, a powerful but most kind lion. Best of all, the cast made an appearance in the lobby after the show to pose for pictures and to sign autographs! This was certainly an exciting theater experience and a fine way to open new and productive venues for our Padre Pio students, besides creating bonds among them which we pray will last for many years to come! Might your children or grandchildren profit from a Catholic education at the Academy? Here's a splendid idea, drop by Father Schell Hall on Wednesday, May 13 at 6:15 in the evening for our annual Open House where you may talk with our teachers and parents as you enjoy the student's exhibits. Everyone is welcome!

Earlier in the year as we awaited the arrival of the 2026 donation envelopes, we were supplied with a quantity of SUPPLEMENTARY ENVELOPES to tide us over. While the Supplementary are still around, they can be confusing. If you are unregistered and check the "Please register my name" box, it does you no good. Instead you need to take an available, unnamed box and write your name and the number of the box on the adjacent clipboard. Your information will be added to the computer within the week. The same generally applies to the "I am waiting for my envelopes" check-box. If you have a recurring problem you should contact the school office.

Within the past few months some parishioners have inadvertently left their possessions in the pew as they departed. These items include easily identifiable Missals and Rosaries, some with sentimental value, all with monetary value. If you have found an item and taken it home for safekeeping, in your charity, please return it immediately to the Giftshop that it might be claimed by its rightful owner. "Finders, keepers" does not apply in the House of the Lord.
