To Modern Catholics We are what you once were. We believe what you once believed. We worship as you once worshiped. If we are wrong now, you were wrong then. If you were right then, we are right now.

July 26, 2026

St. Anne, Mother of the Blessed Virgin
Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

Modesty in Church Out of respect to our Lord, we beg all to appear in church modestly dressed. No shorts allowed. Ladies heads must be covered, no slacks or pants, low cut or sleeveless tops. Your cooperation is evidence of your love for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and respect for the House of God.

Communion Fast Holy Communion may be received only by Catholics believing themselves to be in the state of Sanctifying Grace, who are observing at least one hour fast prior to reception of the Sacrament. We are urged, however, to observe the fast from midnight, or, at least for three hours. While always welcome, non-Catholics and those who do not accept the traditional teachings of the Church in matters of faith and morals, are NOT to receive Communion at this Mass. To receive Holy Communion do so in silence- do not say Amen.

Confession Procedure Begin your confession with "BLESS me Father for I have sinned", when you have received your penance, immediately begin your Act of Contrition.

Mass Requests For the living, dead or special intentions- $20 stipend per Mass, intention box located on the wall in the gift shop.

Chapel Etiquette Food, drink, cell phones and matches are not allowed. Please use the butane lighters to light the votive candles. When the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, genuflect on both knees and bow. Otherwise, genuflect with the RIGHT knee touching the floor.

OLHC is an independent Traditional Chapel. We maintain no association whatsoever with Kentucky Resistance.

No unapproved literature may be left on the premises. It will be discarded.

Need something blessed? The first Sunday of each. The next blessing will be August 2nd, please be there to pick up your item, it will not be held.

Lost and Found Please remember to identify your Missals and prayer books for a safe return. If you find something left in the pews, please return it to the lost and found bin in the bookstore to find its rightful owner. If you have lost something, check the bin, still can't find it, e-mail olhcbulletin@yahoo.com or put a note in the collection basket with your item and contact information.

Have you Registered? To register and receive offering envelopes, see the sign-up in the gift shop.

Checks Payable to OLHC or Our Lady Help of Christians. Please DO NOT seal envelopes with scotch tape or stickers.

"The 1897 poem "Lilium Regis," by Francis Thompson (1859 - 1907) beginning with the line "O Lily of the King," serves as a metaphor for the enduring and triumphant nature of the Catholic Faith. The poem reflects on the themes of spiritual endurance and the perseverance of the Church during periods of persecution."

Lilium Regis

O Lily of the King! low lies thy silver wing,
And long has been the hour of thine unqueening;
And thy scent of Paradise on the night-wind spills its sighs,
Nor any take the secrets of its meaning.
O Lily of the King! I speak a heavy thing,
O patience, most sorrowful of daughters!
Lo, the hour is at hand for the troubling of the land,
And red shall be the breaking of the waters.

Sit fast upon thy stalk, when the blast shall with thee talk,
With the mercies of the King for thine awning;
And the just understand that thine hour is at hand,
Thine hour at hand with power in the dawning.
When the nations lie in blood, and their kings a broken brood,
Look up, O most sorrowful of daughters!
Lift up thy head and hark what sounds are in the dark,
For His feet are coming to thee on the waters!

O Lily of the King! I shall not see, that sing,
I shall not see the hour of thy queening!
But my Song shall see, and wake like a flower that dawn-winds shake,
And sigh with joy the odors of its meaning.
O Lily of the King, remember then the thing
That this dead mouth sang; and thy daughters,
As they dance before His way, sing there on the Day,
What I sang when Night was on the waters!

(.....With profound thanks to Rt. Rev. Msgr. Vincent Lloyd-Russell (1904 - July 27, 1976) Pastor, Old Mission San Juan Capistrano, on the Fiftieth Anniversary of his death. Requiescat in pace.)

Today, Fr. Smith will celebrate the fifth of a novena of "Deliverance Masses" for protection from the assaults of Satan and his own. Be sure to make at least a Spiritual Communion, remembering the intention in your daily Rosary through December 7.
