Celebrating 43 Years of Catholic Tradition in Education

www.padrepio-academy.org email: ppioacademy@gmail.com

Today is the feast of All Saints; all those souls from time immemorial who enjoy beatific vision. Of such saints there are many we know about, the apostles, the martyrs, the holy men and women whose feast days we celebrate day after day, year after year. And the others? Undoubtedly, they are people we have known of, possibly even people we have known personally. Then certainly, the vast multitudes of good souls from the depth of the ages. And let us not forget please, all those souls awaiting the beatific vision who still suffer in purgatory and who we will pray for tomorrow at the Commemoration of All the Souls Departed. There will be three consecutive Masses here tomorrow morning starting at 7:30AM and immediately followed by two others.

Plenary Indulgence applicable to the Poor Souls:

November 1 thru 8 -Visit a cemetery with at least mental prayer for the Poor Souls.
November 2 -Visit a Church or Oratory, there reciting one Our Father and one Creed.

Six general rules to obtain a plenary indulgence:

1) State of grace at least when performing the indulgenced act.
2) Complete detachment from sin, even venial.
3) Confession 20 days before or after the indulgenced act.
4) Reception of Holy Communion for each act.
5) Prayers for the good intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff (once per act).
6) Performance of the Indulgenced Act.

A partial indulgence may be obtained at any time by visiting a cemetery and there praying for the Poor Souls.

Padre Pio Academy students celebrated All Saints Day as usual, in their own inimitable way! The day began Friday at 8:15 sharp as the students in full uniform assembled in the Chapel for recitation of the Rosary. Immediately following, students had ample opportunity to change into their costumes as the Saint Costume Contest got underway. Each student described his knowledge of their chosen saint and how it applies to the costume. One winner was chosen from each class based on overall knowledge of their saint as well as creativity, effort, and authenticity of the costume! Then came games organized by the high school students, featuring saint-themed games on the front lawn. And last but not least, Trunk or Treat, as moms and dads showed up in their vehicles with seasonally decorated trunks and lots and lots of treats! The high schoolers voted on the best trunk after much debate and the winner got a $10 Starbucks gift card!!!

It floored me when I saw it!!! Don't miss "Father's Floormat Fundraiser" an informative colored poster posted on all the doors in an effort to purchase floormats for the new priestly vehicles. This is your chance to be a part of a worthwhile cause!

"Love alone matters! The blessed Cross has but one purpose and that is to empty our hearts of worldliness and self, that they may be filled to overflowing with the love of Jesus Christ!"
